

WKZA-FM Issues and Programs List
3rd Quarter August 2017

Date	August 6, 2017
Issue	Legal Reform, Poverty
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran a 8 ½ minute interview with Benjamin H. Barton, Professor of Law and author about longstanding problems in our judicial system. He says laws are too complex and legal advice is far more expensive than necessary. He outlined possible reforms that would make courts fairer and more accessible to for poor and middle-class Americans.

Date	August 13, 2017
Issue	Parenting
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran a 10 minute interview with Lea Waters, Ph.D., about strength based parenting, focusing on praising children’s strengths rather than always trying to correct their weaknesses. She said the technique differs from the “participation trophy” approach common in recent generations.

Date	August 20, 2017
Issue	Environment, Parenting
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran a 10 minute interview with Scott Sampson, Ph.D., about the amount of time children actually play outside today and the disconnect between kids and nature. He offered tips for parents to help kids fall in love with nature through a variety of outdoor activities.

Date	August 27, 2017
Issue	Personal Health, Substance Abuse
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran an 8 minute interview with Tim Stockwell, Ph.D., about the difference between moderate and heavy drinking, and about how moderate drinking any type of alcohol will help protect against heart disease. He also outlined several issues many researchers fail to factor in their studies.
