

WKZA-FM Issues and Programs List
2ND Quarter May 2017

Date	May 7, 2017
Issue	Personal Finance, Parenting, Education
Program	At about 6:30 am we ran a ten minute interview with investor and author Robert Kiyosaki about the difference in how wealthy people view and use money, and that it doesn't take a high income to become rich. He also discussed the best career choices for young people.

Date	May 14, 2017
Issue	Domestic Violence, Women's Issues
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran a nine minute interview with author Gwendolen Wilder about her years of abuse and how she escaped. She talked about hurdles that prevent women from leaving abusive relationships, and offered advice on leaving.

Date	May 21, 2017
Issue	Disaster Preparedness
Program	At about 6:30 am we ran a 8 ½ minute interview with Irwin Redlener, PhD, about sheltering, emergency supplies, and the reasons officials are reluctant to discuss the topic.

Date	May 28, 2017
Issue	Personal Health, Alzheimer's, Senior Citizens
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran an eight minute interview with Mark Underwood, PhD, about when people start experiencing memory loss, advanced forms of dementia, and outlined basic steps to take to keep the brain active to prevent decline.