

WKZA-FM Issues and Programs List
1st Quarter April 2018

Date	April 1, 2018
Issue	Citizenship, Government Policies
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran a 7 minute interview with John R. Baker, Ph.D., about how 97 percent of cities are smaller and have smaller local governments. He explained how these operate, who board members are, what motivates them, and why it's important for citizens to be involved.

Date	April 8, 2018
Issue	Personal Finance, Retirement Planning
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran an 8 minute interview with Mark J. Perry Ph.D., about how mutual funds are performing better than index funds, and why nearly half of all investors still gravitate to managed funds.

Date	April 15, 2018
Issue	Parenting, Education, Media
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran an 8 minute interview with Angela C. Santomero, M.A., about how healthy, research-based television programs and other media help preschoolers flourish, and she outlined ways parents can evaluate and monitor media exposure.

Date	April 22, 2018
Issue	Women's Issues, Career, Sexual Harassment
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran a 9 minute interview with Sally Helgesen, author of "How Women Rise: Break the 12 Habits Holding You Back from Your Next Raise, Promotion, or Job" about specific roadblocks women face, how to get proper credit for work achievements, and how the #metoo movement has affected job opportunities for women.