

WKZA-FM Issues and Programs List
2nd Quarter, July 2018

Date	July 1, 2018
Issue	Economics, Career, Education
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran a 9 minute interview with Alvin E. Roth, PhD., who explained how market designs affect may less obvious aspects of life, such as the chances of getting a job or whether a university accepts a prospective student.

Date	July 8, 2018
Issue	Women's Concerns, Career, Marriage
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran a 9 minute interview with author Elizabeth Wallace about how women's roles have changed, and whether they can still "have it all". She outlined three paths where a woman's life and career choices may lead. She talked about the importance of the support of husbands, and offered advice for women facing today's career choices.

Date	July 22, 2018
Issue	Mental Health, Consumer Matters
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran a 7 1/2 minute interview with Bill Thornton, PhD., about how the presence of smart phones affects our life and the reasons why they are so distracting. He also offered suggestions for parents who are concerned about their child's phone usage.

Date	July 29, 2018
Issue	Education, Government Policies
Program	At about 6:30 am, we ran an 8 ½ minute interview with Kevin Carey, PhD., about how the cost of college has exploded in recent years, and how he believes that the current methods of higher education are outdated. He also talked about the importance of a college education and how he believes universities should be willing to be open to new technologies.